

Today's Wine Flight

A sampling of nine wines from all around the world!

Placido, Pinot Grigio, Italy, 2010
Balletto, Pinot Gris, Sonoma, CA, 2009
Tilia, Torrontes, Mendoza, Argentina, 2009
Chateau St. Jean, Chardonnay, Somoma, 2009
Black Star Farms, Pinot Noir, Old Mission Peninsula, MI, 2010
Fattoria Rodano, Poggilupi, Tuscany, Italy, 2009
Centine by Banfi, Tuscany, Italy, 2007
Route Stock Cellars, Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa, 2008
Chateau Tanunda, Shiraz, Grand Barossa, Australia, 2008

20

Andiamo Dearborn Special Featured Wines

ANDIAMO, Nero D'Avola, by Tola, Sicily (HOUSE SIGNATURE)

Complex aromas of light toasty oak, with plum and hints of pudding and dark chocolate. Medium bodies, with velvety tannins and a medium finish. Very balanced. (Biodynamically Farmed)

9.00 glass/45.00 bottle

ANDIAMO, Pinot Grigio, by D'Arrigo, Veneto (HOUSE SIGNATURE)

8.00 glass/40.00 bottle

Lewis, Chardonnay "Barcaqlia Lane", Russian River Valley, 08

Fresh, firm, intense and vibrant, with spicy green apple, honeydew melon and honeysuckle that are full-bodied and slow to unfold, gaining depth and richness on the finish. Drink now through 2014.

350 cases made

25.00 glass/125.00 bottle

Lyndenhurst by Spottswoode, Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley, 2007

There are about 500 cases of the 2006 Lyndenhurst Cabernet Sauvignon, a blend of 92% Cabernet Sauvignon and 8% Cabernet Franc that sees about 70% new oak. This medium to full-bodied, lush red should age nicely for 10 years

20.00 glass/100.00 bottle