

Esoteric & Interesting Whites.....a must try category

	Glass
1466 Chateau St. Michelle, Riesling, Washington, 2008	8.00	32
2611 Chateau Grand Traverse, Riesling, Semi-Dry, Michigan, 2008	8.00	32
0200 Karl Erbes, Riesling Kabinett (Dry), Germany, 2007	12.00	48
1673 Henschke, Semillon, Australia, 2004	12.00	48
2477 Andiamo, Bianco by TOLA, “Cataratto”, 2008		32
2438 Palmina, Arneis-“Honea Vineyard”, Santa Ynez-Ca., 2006		42
The impressive 2006 Arneis Honea Vineyard nearly matches what I consider the best Arneis wine made in the world, that from the famed Barolo/Barbaresco producer, Bruno Giacosa. Palmina’s beautiful Arneis offers attractive notes of green apples, honey, citrus blossom, fresh flowers, and a touch of wet stones. RP 88 points.
1663 Alta Vista, Torrontes, Argentina, 2006		39
2180 Black Star, Riesling-Semi Dry, “Arcturos”, Michigan, 2007		38
3020 Barbadillo, Palomino Fina, Spain, 2008		35
1151 Ramos-Pinto, “Adriano”, Portugal, 2004		35
2192 Sella & Mosca, Vermentino, Sardegna-Italy, 2006		39
1330 Martin Codax, Albarino, Spain, 2007		38
0233 Pierre Sparr, Pinot Gris Reserve, Alsace, 2005		45
1058 Anne Amie, “Cuvee Amrita”, Oregon, 2006		40
(Blend of Riesling, Chardonnay, Viognier, Pinot Blanc & Pinot Gris)
2962 Conundrum by Caymus, Napa Valley, 2008		65
1870 Henschke, “Tilly’s Vineyard”, Australia, 2005 (Chardonnay, Semillon)		60
3108 Vina Robles, White 4, Paso Robles-California, 2009		45
(42% Vermentino, 29% Verdelho, 26% Viognier, 3% Sauvignon Blanc)

Wednesdays receive 50% off all non-reserve wines under $100.00 with a Mille Grazie Card

Vintages are subject to change without notice

Wine Spectator Magazine Award of Excellence 2006, 2007, 2008 & 2009